Sidewalk Poetry a Learning Experience

Written by

Dexter, Missouri – The English classes at T.S. Hill Middle School finished a unit on poetry. To have a little fun Mr. Stephens took his students outside in the beautiful spring weather and they wrote poems on the sidewalks around the school.

Poems included limericks, Cinquain poems, name poems, metaphor poems, and Haikus.

It was a fun way to learn different types of poetry and a neat way to share them with the rest of the school.
