

TOP

Singing Heroes at Keller Library's Summer Reading Program

JUNE 22ND 2015 BY DEE LOFLIN

Singing Heroes at Keller Library's Summer Reading Program
Dexter, Missouri - Who knew these folks could sing!!!! The Keller Public Library continued this week with the series of "Every Hero Has a Story". This week included musical entertainment with our city officials and other local heroes.

This week's presentation consisted of Fire Chief Don Seymore, Engineer Darryl Orr, Mayor Joe Weber, City Administrator Mark Stidham, Police Officer Lori O'Dell, Mary Ann Taylor, National Guard veterans Charles Cooper and Laura Cooper, and storyteller Kim Cook.

The Hero series continues each Wednesday morning at 11:00 a.m. until July 15th. On June 24th, live animals from Animal Tales will be on hand to present "Animal Avengers". Should be an exciting story hour at Keller Public Library!!

Here are the Summer Reading Program dates for July and upcoming events the Library will host!

Summer Reading Program:

11:00 July 1 - "Super Magic Super Hero" with Super Reading Magician

Marty Hahne

11:00 July 8 - "Heroes of the Wild!" - Agent Mark Reed, Missouri
Department of Conservation

11:00 July 15 - "The Hero in You!" - Crafts and Ice Cream Sundaes

Keller Public Library Board of Directors meeting - Thursday, July 30,
5:15 P.M. - Library Community Room

July 14 - 5:00 - 6:30 Chamber Business After Hours at the Keller Public
Library

"Unlimited Possibilities @ Your Library"

LAST UPDATED ON JUNE 22ND 2015 BY DEE LOFLIN

<https://showmetimes.com/Blogpost/uu7f/Singing-Heroes-at-Keller-Librarys-Summer-Reading-Program>

Go to post

More from ShowMe Times: