In Loving Memory of Jane Jackson

N. Jane Jackson 84, formerly of Dexter, Missouri, passed away peacefully on Monday October 25, 2016 at Willow Crest Nursing Pavilion in Sandwich, IL.

She was born on February 7, 1932 in Hornersville, Missouri, the daughter of Jess and Mary (Masterson) Rhew.

She married her one and only, Bill Jackson on October 16, 1949 in Kennett, Missouri. Jane was a very active member of the Southwest Church of the Nazarene in Dexter and a member of the Dexter Senior Choir. Jane had a great work ethic while working various jobs throughout the years, including retiring from Western Electric. She also enjoyed and excelled at cooking, baking, sewing and making crafts. She dearly loved her Lord, her family, her church family and her many friends.

She is survived by two grandchildren, Terry (Ashley) Jackson II of Yorkville, IL; Jody (John) Stagl of Oswego, IL; her daughter-in-law, Lorrie Jackson of Leland, IL and her precious great-grandchildren, Andrew Stonecipher, Haylee Jackson, Tyler Stagl, Addison Jackson, Caden Stagl, and Jack Jackson; one brother, Jerry Rhew of Bridgman, MI; one sister, Evelyn Dearing of St. Charles, MO, and several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Bill Jackson; one son, Terry Jackson and eight brothers and four sisters.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00am on Saturday, November 5, 2016 at Rainey Mathis Funeral Home in Dexter with Pastor Ed Stoner officiating.

Burial will be private.
