CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. - A group of Dexter High School students excelled at District DECA competition last week.

The DHS DECA (Distributive Educational Clubs of America) chapter participated in District 12 Competition on Tuesday, Feb. 8. The day's competitions were held in Dempster Hall on the campus of Southeast Missouri State University.

A total of 12 DHS students participated in the competition, and Chapter Advisory Tammy Crowley reports all 12 won trophies for their excellent work. Dexter students participating were:

- Luke Robinson, first place, Principles of Finance
- Austin Stacy, second place, Principles of Hospitality and Tourism
- Sarah Davis, second place, Principles of Marketing
- Elisha Flanignan, first place, Community Service Project
- Logan Crowley and Glen Parker, first Entrepreneurship Promotion Project
- Arriel McGowen and Taylor Robey, second place, Buying and Merchandising
- Matt Blattman, Josh Galloway and Brennen Justice, second place, Advertising Campaign Event

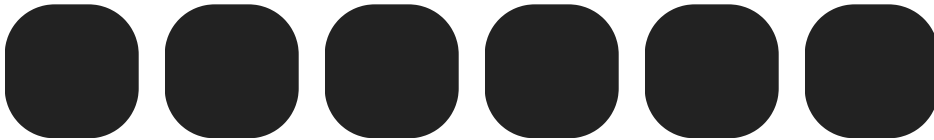

- Austin Seabaugh, second place, Fashion Merchandising Promotion Plan

Crowley reports most of these students will have the opportunity to move on to the Missouri State DECA Leadership Conference on March 13-15 at the Lodge of the Four Seasons at Lake of the Ozarks.
