MAY 24TH 2011 BY NEWS

Community To Remember Tornado Victims

A SMT News Report

A special prayer service is being planned to remember in the Dexter community to pray for the victims and survivors, and to seek comfort and guidance following the devastating tornado in Joplin and Southwest Missouri.

The members of the First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) are planning a an "Ecumenical Prayer Service For Recent Disaster" at 6 p.m., Wednesday, May 25 at the church on Stoddard Street in Downtown Dexter.

The service will include songs of faith, readings from the Bible, and prayer. The evening's prayer service will include three parts – prayer of confession, prayer of need and prayer of commitment.

Church members participating and helping to lead this special service include Lisa Thrower, Nona Robinson, Bill Boesen, Tommy Horton, Kellie Reese, and Jim Putnam. Hymns will include "Amazing Grace," "O God Our Help In Ages Past," and "Great Is Thy Faithfulness."

The community is invited to join the First Christian Church family for this special service as they remember and pray for the victims and survivors of this week's tragic storms in the state.

Middle School Bands Shine In Concert

MAY 21ST 2011 BY NEWS

Middle School Bands Shine In Concert

Dexter's T.S. Hill Middle School bands presented an exciting evening of music recently. Featured were the 6th, 7th, and 8th grade bands and the Middle School Jazz Band.

The bands played to a full house of parents, family and friends at the middle school. The concert was the final concert of the academic year. Band directors are Scott Rybolt and Jim Wade.
