Three new teachers were hired this week by the Dexter Board of Education.

The board met this week in a special meeting. During the special meeting the board had a first reading of new and/or revised policies before it voted to enter Executive Session.

During the closed portion of the meeting the board approved three new teachers for employment in the district:

- Marti Pulliam was hired for the high school industrial technology program. Pulliam has taught for one year and has 11 years of practical experience as a surveyor, construction technician and computer drafter;
- Misty Everett was hired to teach high school English; Everett has a Masters in English and an additional certification in speech and debate and five years teaching experience;
- Rhonda Lane was hired for high school English; Lane has nearly 20 years teaching experience in English and Family and Consumer Science.

In addition, the board approved the move of Molly Probst to Title I Visual Intervention Program at Southwest and hired Cody Boyer as a special services aide and Sheila Minehart for custodial help.

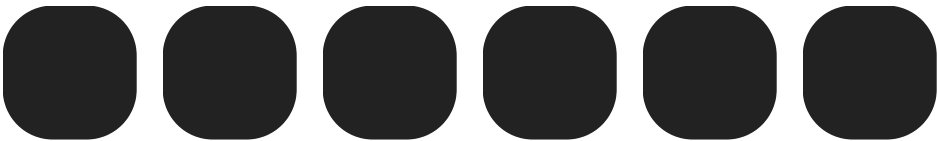

The board also approved the following extra-duty assignments:

- Mike Vipperman, freshman football
- Rhonda Robinson, high school volleyball assistant
- Tammy Crowley and Vicki Windham, high school football cheerleading
- Cody Boyer, middle school football assistant
- Alana Dowdy and Eric Sitze, assistant high school activities directors
