Roadwork Today On Three Mile

A SMT News Report

A portion of a major rural Dexter roadway is closed for a time today.

The section of Three Mile Road (County Road 637) between the South Outer Road and Grant Street is closed Thursday, according to a spokesman for Liberty Township.

Township crews are replacing a culvert under the roadway just north of the railroad tracks. Three Mile Road has been closed to through traffic until the construction work is completed.

The spokesman for Liberty Township said they anticipate the work to be completed and the road re-opened by early Thursday afternoon.
