DMS Football Rolls Through Charleston

By Andrew Cato, ShowMe Times Sports Editor

The DMS Football team put on an impressive show Thursday night at Charles Bland Stadium.

The eighth grade squad, coached by Leonard Morse, was able to put up a 20-6 victory over the Charleston Bluejays.

Ethan Stevens - the younger brother of DHS Quarterback Cody Stevens - rushed for a touchdown and connected with Austin Chesser and Jacob Crumley for two TD passes.

The young 'Cats will be on the road for the rest of the season, with games at Kennett, Poplar Bluff, and Jackson.

Thanks to Bearcat Mom and SMT Reader Robin Rickman for the photo of the squad seventh grade squad in action earlier this season!
