Bearcat Basketball UPDATE

DECEMBER 15TH 2011 BY UNKNOWN

Bearcat Basketball UPDATE

By Andrew Cato, ShowMe Times Sports Editor

There have been a few updates on the Bearcat Basketball team recently.

The Boys game Friday (Dec. 16) at Richland, which was previously reported as Varsity-only, will have two quarters of JV play. The Varsity contest is set to tip at 6:00 p.m., with the two quarters of JV played at the conclusion of the Varsity game.

The Boys are also seeded No. 5 in the Bloomfield Christmas tournament; the 2010 Champion Kennett Indians, who snubbed Dexter in the title game, grabbed the No. 1 seed. The Bearcats will face off against No. 12 South Pemiscot on Monday, December 26 at 2:30 p.m.

The Lady Bearcats are set to face the Sikeston Lady Bulldogs in a District clash tonight at the Bearcat Event Center; the evening is set to tip at 6:00 for the JV and the Varsity immediately following.

LBB grabbed the No. 1 seed in the Lady Royals Christmas Classic, played at Twin Rivers High School.

The Lady 'Cats will open the tournament against the No. 16 Malden Green Wave on Saturday (Dec. 17) at 9:00 a.m.

Poor Shooting Sinks Lady Raiders

DECEMBER 14TH 2011 BY UNKNOWN

Poor Shooting Sinks Lady Raiders

POPLAR BLUFF - Shooting was the theme of the night in Tuesday's game between the Three Rivers Lady Raiders and Arkansas Baptist.

For Three Rivers, it was a lack of it. For the Lady Buffaloes, it was getting it at the right time.

The Lady Raiders shot just 39 percent (21-of-54) from the field – and just 26 percent (five-for-19) in the first half – and also struggled at the free-throw line (20-of-40), while Arkansas Baptist hit four 3-pointers as part of a game-changing 14-3 run late in the game to rally for a 71-65 win at the Bess Activity Center.

“Free throws. Free throws. Free throws,” Three Rivers coach Jeff Walk said. “And if we make a few more free throws and commit a few less turnovers, we win. You can't write that any other way.”

Three Rivers (6-5) took a 45-42 lead on Carolyn Overton's free throws with 9:46 to go, but the Lady Buffaloes connected on four treys – the first two by Jerrica Walls – as part of a 14-3 spurt, taking a 56-48 lead on Caitlyn Williams's triple with just under five and a half minutes to go.

“We went to a triangle-and-two defense trying to shut that down, then someone else started making them,” said Walk. “It was just pick your poison. Sometimes as coaching goes, you overcoach instead of letting the game happen.”

The Lady Raiders could get no closer than five points the rest of the way.

After a dismal start that saw Three Rivers make just five baskets in the first half and miss 11 of its 19 shots from the foul line, back-to-back baskets by Carolyn Overton ignited a 19-5 run as the Lady Raiders took a 37-31 lead on Candace Miller's free throws with 13:55 to go.

However, Arkansas Baptist began to chip away, cutting the lead to 43-42 on Gabby Jenkins's free throw with 9:50 before going on its game-turning run.

Overton paced Three Rivers with 18 points and 14 rebounds, while Whitney Mills added 13 points and Abbie Warren finished with 10.

"We got beat but the kids battled all the way through," Walk said. "That is something to build on. And they're the most athletic team we'll play all year."

Cassie Vaughn and Ashley Qualls led the Lady Buffaloes with 12 points apiece.

The Lady Raiders are off until January 3, when they travel to Williams Baptist for a rematch of the season opener.

'Cats Show Signs Of Improvement At Jackson

DECEMBER 14TH 2011 BY UNKNOWN

'Cats Show Signs Of Improvement At Jackson

By Andrew Cato, ShowMe Times Sports Editor

JACKSON - The Bearcats are still searching for that ever-elusive first win, but they took a big step forward in Tuesday night's contest against the Jackson Indians.

After a 70-50 loss to Jackson last Tuesday in the second round of the SEMO Conference Tournament, the Bearcats took to the court in hopes of exacting some revenge against the Indians, but after a four-quarter battle, the 'Cats fell 66-58.

The Indians have a distinct size advantage over the 'Cats - four of their five starters were 6'2" or taller - but Jake Lee played a great game in the paint despite being nearly six inches shorter.

The 'Cats were also without the services of Chase Young, who was out with a knee injury.

Lee led the Bearcats in scoring with 25 points. D.J. Dowdy and Tyler Miller were the only other Bearcats in double-figures, with 15 and 12 points, respectively.

Lee had his hands full throughout the contest, but did a great job slowing down the 6'9" John Meyer, holding him to just 10 points in the contest.

Miller and Lee were the only Bearcats that were able to find the basket during the opening frame of the game; the duo combined for 11 points. The Indians were able to barely edge a 13-11 lead at the end of the first.

Jordan Fitts and Dowdy were both able to knock down threes during the Bearcats' 17 point second quarter effort. The 'Cats were able to pick up the pressure on the defensive end of the floor and hold Jackson to just 11 points in the frame to take a 28-24 lead into the locker room at halftime.

The third quarter was a mirror image of the second; Jackson’s defense played well and held the ‘Cats to just 7 points, while their offense exploded with an 18 point effort. The Indians held a 42-35 lead heading into the final quarter of play.

Dowdy and Lee carried the Bearcat offense during the fourth quarter, scoring 20 of the ‘Cats’ 23 points in the frame. Caleb Newcomer was able to knock down all eight of his shots from the charity stripe to seal the 66-58 victory for the Indians.

In the JV contest, Myles Urhan and Drake Mitchell both had solid efforts, and the entire team showed signs of improvement, but the JV ‘Cats ultimately fell to 0-6 on the season with the loss.

The Bearcats - fresh off earning a No. 5 seed in the Bloomfield Christmas Tournament fall to 0-5 on the season, with all five losses - one to Charleston, and two each to Sikeston and Jackson - coming to SEMO Conference opponents.

The ‘Cats will be back in action again on Friday night, when they travel to Essex to take on the Richland Rebels. Tipoff for the Varsity-only contest is scheduled for 6:00 p.m.

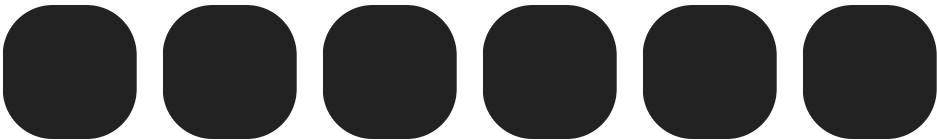

Thanks to SMT Reader and Bearcat Mom Tracy Miller for the photos!
