SBU Announces Jamal Powell As O-Line Coach

BOLIVAR - Southwest Baptist University head football coach Keith Allen announced today the hiring of new offensive line coach, Jamal Powell. Powell comes to SBU from Centre College where he has been the offensive line coach for the past four years. Prior to coaching at Centre College, Powell spent two years at Texas A&M University in College Station.

Powell also spent time playing for four different professional football organizations. Powell played two years in the NFL at center. He spent 2003 playing for the Tennessee Titans, and 2004 playing for the Houston Texans.

Powell played his college ball at Texas Christian University (TCU) where he was selected to the Conference USA First Team in 2002, and was named All-American in 2003 as well at Conference USA's Strength and Conditioning Athlete of the Year.

"I have known Jamal since his playing days from TCU," Coach Allen commented. "We are very excited about having him join our staff. Jamal will be a great addition to our coaching staff. He comes to SBU highly recommended from many college coaches. I expect our OL play to be drastically improved from the 2011 season."

Southwest Baptist University is a four-year evangelical Christian university that was established in 1878. The main campus is located about 30 minutes north of Springfield, Missouri, in Bolivar, a town of approximately 10,000 people.
