Allen, Harris Reach Career Milestones

Prior to Tuesday night's home contest against the Meadow Heights Panthers, the Lady Bearcats took a moment to honor one of their players and coaches for significant career achievements.

Brittany Harris joined the 1,000 Point Club during the Lady Bearcats' 56-26 victory over the Kennett Lady Indians on January 9, 2012.

Harris' name will go down in the record books as the first Lady Bearcat to reach 1,000 points in her junior season, and as the fifth Lady Bearcat to reach the mark; she as preceded by Rachel Blunt (1491 pts., 2001-2005), Katelyn Heil (1,419 pts., 2005-2009), Katie Dunlap (1,157 pts., 1999-2003), and Taylor Nelson (1,115 pts., 2002-2006).

The junior post currently stands at 1,080 career points, and if her 17.2 ppg average plays out, should finish the regular season close to the 1,160 mark. Harris, LBB's leading scorer, stands at 327 points through 19 of the Lady Bearcats' 25 regular-season games.

LBB head coach Chad Allen was also honored before the game for picking up his 100th career win. Allen is the first coach in the history of Lady Bearcat Basketball to reach the feat; Gavin Miller, Allen's predecessor, previously held the mark with 94 wins. Rounding out the top three is Larry Louder, who had 86 wins during his time at the helm of the Lady 'Cats.

Harris and Allen, along with the rest of the Lady Bearcats, look to improve on their marks on Thursday night, when they travel to Kelly to take on the Lady Hawks. Tipoff for the JV game is set for 6:30.
