Taylor, Lady Owls In NAIA National Tourney

KANSAS CITY - After punching their dance card with a thrilling 72-67 win over Columbia College, the #25-ranked William Woods University women's basketball team learned its first round foe as the bracket for the 32nd Annual Division I Women's Basketball National Championship presented by Kentuckytourism.com was announced on Wednesday.

The Owls will play in the opening game of the tournament, tipping off at 8:30 a.m. on Wednesday, March 14 against #8-ranked Shawnee State.

This is the second time that the Owls have served as the opening game of the tournament, with the Owls falling to Trevecca Nazarene in the 2009-10 season. This is the first time that these two teams have met in any action.

The first 30 contests from Frankfort, Ky., will be available via live stream from NeuLion, the digital media partner of the NAIA and the official video streaming company of 10 select NAIA National Championship events for $29.95 and any single day can be purchased for $9.95. Also, one can purchase the all-tournament package of all four basketball tournaments for $49.95.
