Good Luck to Area BETA Clubs

GREENSBORO, N.C. - The National Beta Club's annual state conventions will begin this Wednesday, June 27th. Area students from Richland, Bloomfield and Malden will be attending the meeting with the theme of "Start Your Engines".

These Senior and Junior Beta state conventions have a multitude of activities ranging from academic contests to quiz bowls to talent competitions.

Area students will be given opportunities to interact, share project ideas, and showcase their academic and leadership abilities.

The ShowMe Times wishes all these students good luck in Greenboro. They are already winners by qualifying for this trip and will represent our area well.
