Brooke Duckworth Crowned Miss DHS

SEPTEMBER 22ND 2012 BY UNKNOWN

Brooke Duckworth Crowned Miss DHS

Last night a tradition continued as the Miss DHS was crowned at Charles Bland Stadium prior to the football game. Miss DHS got started around 6:20 P.M. before the Bearcats took on a game against the Kennett Indians at 7:00 P.M.

The weather was perfect with a slight breeze as fans became crowding into the stadium for last night's festivities. Eight girls in dresses could be spotted down by the field house with their escorts waiting for the big moment.

Every year around the beginning of September, a box is set up in the high school office for Miss DHS nominations. Members of the senior class are invited to nominate one girl they feel is deserving of the nomination. From there, the eight girls with the most votes from their classmates are considered the Miss DHS Nominees.

After finding out about being nominated, the girls are then asked to find an escort who is not a football player to escort her during the event.

Despite being nominated by the senior class, the whole student body participates in the final voting process.

Each girl is announced along with her escort prior to the game. After each nominee and escort is announced, the Miss DHS Court is revealed.

The eight 2012 Miss DHS nominees were Whittney Twomey, Brooke Duckworth, Taylor Winstead, Brooke Stoker, Sydney Graves, Stephanie Gee, Jessica Norman, and Alexis Rauls.

Claiming the second alternate spot was Miss Sydney Graves, first alternate was won by Stephanie Gee, and Brooke Duckworth was crowned the 2012 Miss DHS.

SPECIAL: Wood Carving Auction at Fair

SEPTEMBER 21ST 2012 BY STAFF WRITER

SPECIAL: Wood Carving Auction at Fair

Stoddard County Fairgrounds Dexter, MO - A special auction will be held this evening at 9:00 PM at the Stoddard County Fairgrounds. The artistry and work of Stacy and Jo Anne Robinson from Montgomery City will be on hand and auctioned off to the highest bidder.

Many of you have witnessed first hand this dynamic duo at the fair all week as they performed their magic with chainsaws and large pieces of hardwood. With masterful technique and a plan in their mind, this husband and wife combo yields incredible keepsakes from large logs.

The couple has been involved with the Stoddard County Fair for many years in the past. Many attendees may not realize that these items are actually for sale. Tonight at 9:00 o'clock, you will have your opportunity to become the proud owner of these artful logs.

Sam Huey of the Stoddard County Park Board urges everyone to be involved and be there to get their bid in on the items Stacy has made this week. Stacy has several items that will be of interest to everyone.

 of a ribbon!" commented Huey. "This would be a perfect thing for an 18 Fore Life pink ribbon or Veterans yellow ribbon. These solid hardwood carvings will last forever."

 You can find out more information about the carving couple at their website at <http://www.robinsoncarving.com/>. The site is very interesting and displays a gallery of many of the items they have carved in the past.

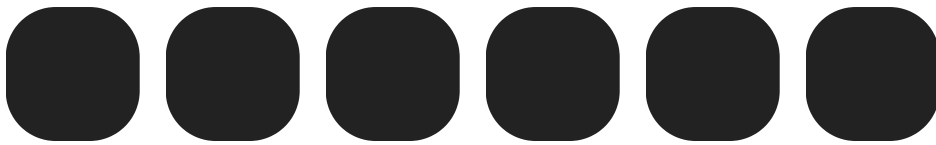

All proceeds from the sale of these items will go to benefit the Stoddard County Fair.

SMT Keeps Up With Activities at Schools

SEPTEMBER 21ST 2012 BY STAFF WRITER

SMT Keeps Up With Activities at Schools

The ShowMe Times has prided itself on delivering positive news about communities, businesses, civic organizations and local people. We hope that for the past year and half, we have met your expectations of "Good News" and have brought the coverage that you wish to read.

Recently, the SMT Team has begun to work in conjunction with the administration at the Dexter Public Schools to keep you better informed of the school activities in their district. In cooperation with the principals of both T. S. Hill Middle School and Dexter Senior High School, we are sharing with our readers the weekly activity reports issued as public information.

This will prove to be valuable in many different ways, as no longer do you have to search for notes or announcements about the general events that will occur at the district. These are provided to us by the district and kept under the "SCHOOLS" tab of the ShowMe Times website.

Each week as we receive these announcements, we will place by Thursday evening the schedules for the following weeks activities. In addition, we will also provide a link from the ShowMe Times Facebook page to these activities and make you more aware when school announcements occur.

The ShowMe Times is proud to bring this information to you in a place you can count on finding it. Our hope is to also make further advancements using technology to keep you better informed about what is going on in our community.

We would like to offer our sincere appreciation to those that support the efforts of our "Online Journal". The ShowMe Times is a free digital publication that allows the good news of the community to be shared among all involved. Please, make it a point to reach out to our advertisers with your words and your patronage to let them know you appreciate their contributions to keep the ShowMe Times online and delivering quality positive news about our community.

Bracelet Night at Stoddard Co. Fair

SEPTEMBER 20TH 2012 BY UNKNOWN

Bracelet Night at Stoddard Co. Fair

Written by Jessica Snider SMT Writer

A large number of people in the surrounding area look forward to the Thursday night of the fair every year. For a long time, the Thursday during the fair week has been known as “bracelet night.”

Many people feel as if bracelet night is less of a hassle if you’re one to ride many of the rides. Bracelets can be purchased for twenty dollars each between 6:00 and 10:00 P.M.

Bracelets can be used to get on the rides instead of tickets if one wishes to do so. It does make it a lot easier to buy a bracelet at the beginning of the night and be able to use it all night instead of standing in line numerous times at the ticket booth.

Other than being bracelet night, there will be more festivities tonight at the Stoddard County Fair. Some of those include: cattle, hogs, and equine judging in Arena A at 6:00 P.M., Robinson Chainsaw Wood Carvers and Puppet show at 7:00 P.M., Magic Mike, FFA Tractor Rodeo at 8:00 P.M. in Arena A, and Karaoke in Arena B at 8:00 P.M.

We wish everyone a safe and fun time while attending the Stoddard County Fair, and once again, don’t forget to take advantage of bracelet night starting at 6:00 P.M.

"Slam For Sam" Charity Event

SEPTEMBER 19TH 2012 BY UNKNOWN

Be sure to head down to the Stoddard County Fair at the fairgrounds tonight. While you are there be sure to make your way to the “Slam for Sam” event. This event is being put together to raise money for a nine year-old boy named, Sam.

Sam was a perfectly healthy boy until he contracted a virus this summer that set up in his heart which facilitated the need for a heart transplant. He is the son Anita (Dudley) Barrios, grandson of Joe Dudley, and nephew of Jeff Dudley. Sam got his heart and is doing better but has a fight ahead of him. So as you could imagine there were an extremely large amount of expenses related to getting Sam to the point he is at now.

It is a fun event where you can use sledge-hammers, claw hammers and various other means of destruction to beat up on an old car. For a donation you can have fun and help out a young boy in need. The car was donated by Alan Rettig with Retco Trailers of Sikeston.

So be sure to get down to fair and take a swing at this old car and help out a family that needs help. If you can't make it to the event you can make a donation to an account set up for them at US Bank.
