Bloomfield, Missouri - County Wide Insurance of Dexter, Missouri enjoys giving during the holiday season.  With the temperatures beginning to drop and the cold, night air finally upon us, we assume everyone will stay warm this winter.

This year at County Wide Insurance Agency's annual Christmas celebration new hats, mittens, gloves and scarves of all colors were bundled together.  Everyone was excited folding pretty pink scarves, matching gloves to hats, holding up little tiny mittens for the littlest of children.  All to be delivered to the Stoddard County Children's Home in Bloomfield, Missouri.

The Children's Home is a safe haven for children from infant to eighteen years of age.  Their doors opened in January of 1980 because of a man named, Churn Williams.  He served as the county's part-time juvenile officer during those days.  He knew there was a need in the county to have a place where children felt safe, loved and happy.

Mike Davis, Chief Juvenile Officer and currently serving on the Board of Directors for the Children's Home, knows just how hard times can get when he sees so many children in need, especially during the holidays.  "Your generosity and support will bring joy to the children.  Thank you!"

It is the true spirit of giving that sustains the Stoddard County Children's Home.  Due to the generosity of many local businesses, schools, churches, other organizations, and people from the local community the Children's Home has been keeping children safe for 32 years.

Anyone wishing to donate are encouraged to contact the Board of Directors by mail at P.O. Box 164, Dexter, MO 63841 or you may contact Mike Davis at the Justice Center in Bloomfield, Missouri.
