Dexter, Missouri – Students and faculty are enjoying spirit week activities in anticipation of Winter Homecoming that will be held on January 4th. “Christmas with the Bearcats” is the theme this week and each day is filled with activities.

Monday was Christmas morning. Each student who wanted to participate could wear their most comfortable pajamas to school.

Tuesday was Santa’s Little Helpers - twin day. Students or faculty could pair up and wear the same clothes, jewelry, shoes or whatever their twin was wearing. Faculty might be seeing double by seventh hour with all the twins in their classrooms.

Wednesday is Christmas Vacation with crazy hair or crazy socks day. Students while on vacation can sleep in and don’t have to worry about their hair or even if their socks match.

Thursday is Grandma’s Christmas Sweater – ugly/tacky day. Everyone remembers those sweaters (which are back in style) and the kid’s love to have fun. They can wear mixed matched clothes and loud colors and ugly sweaters.

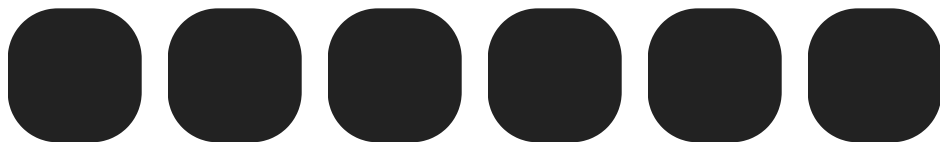

Friday will end the week of festivities with Colors of Christmas. Each student or faculty member is encouraged to wear red and green. A pep rally during seventh hour will be held on Friday. A joyful afternoon will be delightful to the students after a week full of finals and quarterly tests. The long awaited Christmas vacation is near!

The Homecoming queen coronation will be held on Friday, January 4th as the Dexter Bearcats host the Woodland Cardinals. The annual Winter Homecoming Dance will be held in the high school cafeteria following the basketball game. Everyone is welcome to attend the game and cheer for the Bearcats!
