Dexter, Missouri - If you have not had the opportunity to witness Joseph Greer's musical talents, you will not want to miss this occasion tonight.

Joseph will be entertaining on keyboard at Dhafer's Mediterranean Steakhouse, Friday evening between the hours of 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Joseph is quite the talented high school student who is building a reputation as a local musician.

A senior now at Dexter Senior High School and preparing for graduation, Joseph is not only talented on the keyboard, but plays the saxophone as well. He jams with the Dexter Jazz Cats and he has consistently received accolades at the district and state levels for his ability to play saxophone as well as the piano.

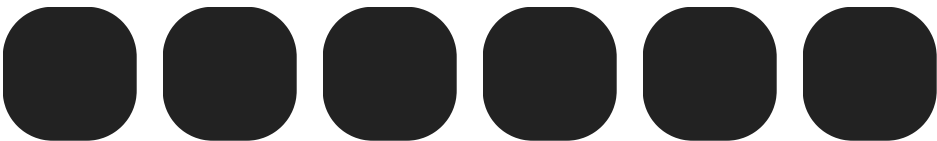

He recently auditioned for the Missouri State Band and Jazz Band in Columbia, Missouri where he was named the All State Jazz Piano Player. He will be performing at Tan-Tar-A, in the Lake of the Ozarks with the All State Jazz Band at the MMEA Conference. This conference is attended by thousands of music educators from across Missouri. The performance will take place on Saturday, January 26, 2013.

This is a must see performance at Dhafer's Mediterranean Steakhouse, which is located at 117 S. Locust in Dexter. They have a wonderful selection of fine foods and wines. This is the perfect restaurant to bring your family and friends and you will enjoy an evening of memorable music.
