Bloomfield, Missouri - The Bloomfield Masonic Lodge #153 will be hosting their Annual Valentine's Breakfast this Saturday morning, February 9th from 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. The Masonic Lodge is located on Prairie Street, just north of the courthouse square in Bloomfield, Missouri.

The Masonic men love to cook and it's been a tradition to host a breakfast each year for the community!

They will be serving bacon, eggs, biscuits and gravy, sausage, hash browns and pancakes. There will also be a variety of beverages, coffee, tea, orange juice, milk and apple juice.

You can't beat the price! The cost is only $6.00 and children under 12 years of age eat for FREE! Worship Master, Mike McCollum says, "You can't find a better priced breakfast anywhere with all that great food!"

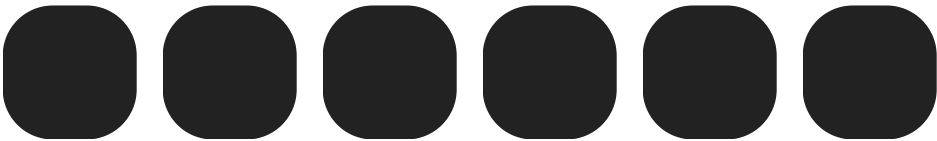

Clifford Hicks will greet you at the door and strike up a conversation. He has been a member of the Lodge in 1953. He has earned his "The Working Tools of the Knife and Fork Degree" and proudly wears his apron as proof.

Proceeds from their Annual Valentine's Breakfast will help with expenses towards a Hunter's Safety Education Course for youngsters who are interested in getting their hunting license. Their next event will be a Mother's Day Breakfast in May.
