Dexter, Missouri - The First Baptist Church of Dexter is excited to about the Pajama Party tour!

The 2013 Secret Keeper Girl tour will stop by the First Baptist Church on April 23rd. The event starts at 6:30 p.m. (doors open at 5:30 pm) with tickets available at the Church or the First Baptist Church in Poplar Bluff. Tickets are only $15 in advance and $20 at the door. You can also purchase them online for $17.50 at www.itickets.com. For more information, please call T.J. Scott, 573-624-7436.

What is this Secret Keeper Girl event? Author Dannah Gresh has been fighting on the front lines to keep our culture from robbing little girls of their innocence. She developed from a series of books she has written, Gresh's fun MOM/DAUGHTER connecting resources presented Secret Keeper Girl LIVE to thousands around the country.

Now their latest show, the Pajama Party Tour has hit the road with an all-new stage show about modesty, fashion and true beauty! This event was created as a relationship-building event for moms and their tween daughters (typically ages 7-12), the two and a half hour event features DRAMATIZED stories about meaningful friendships, FUN fashion shows that demonstrate modesty, INCREDIBLE balloon sculptures, bouncing beach ball competitions, mother/daughter conversation time and colorful confetti cannons.

A handfull of moms are featured with their own hilarious fashion show in the new "Totally Tubular TV Mom's Show", a look at the fashion of some of TV's favorite moms (a great chance to talk about peer pressure!). Five special girls have been pre-selected as models for the tour's hallmark, a seasonal tween fashion show featuring Gresh's Truth or Bare Modesty Tests.

Billed as a practical modesty, fashion and beauty truth event, the all-new theatrical stage show has a pajama party theme. Attendees are invited to wear their fuzzy slippers. The theme enables the fantastic stage team to create an up close and personal "girl talk" feel, and to even address any concerns about a real pajama party where the girl talk could go the wrong way.

Danna Gresh has sold over three quarters of a million copies of her books, best known for her titles And the Bride Wore White and Lies Young Women Believe. Her most recent work, for moms of tweens who are concerned about he cultural pressure to grow up too fast, is Six Ways To Keep The Little In Your Girl: Guiding Your Daughter From Her Tweens to Her Teens.

Her Secret Keeper Girl Products and live touring events continue to provide resources that help moms connect with their tween daughters. Find her books and products at [\[url_new=www.SecretKeeperGirl.com\]](http://www.SecretKeeperGirl.com).

It will be the most fun a mother and daughter will have digging into God's word. Please join the First Baptist Church on April 23rd at 11 W. Castor in Dexter, Missouri.

Easter Sunday at First Baptist Church

*Written by
Dee Loflin, SMT Manager/Writer*

Dexter, Missouri - The First Baptist Church would like to invite everyone to their worship services on Easter Sunday, March 31st to Celebrate Our Savior's Resurrection.

Life is touch. However, some people are more successful than others. What's their secret? On Easter Sunday, they are exploring the parallels between March Madness winners and what the Bible says about those who win at the game of life. You won't want to miss this sermon.

The first Worship Service is at 9:15 a.m. and there will be no Sunday School that morning. The second Worship Service is at 11:00 a.m.

Donuts will be served between the two services in the Fellowship Hall.

Evening Services have been cancelled so family may spend time together on this joyous day.

The First Baptist Church is located at 11 West Castor St. in Dexter. For more information about service times view their website at www.fbcdexter.org or their Facebook page.

The Passion of the Christ Movie

MARCH 25TH 2013 BY DEE LOFLIN

The Passion of the Christ Movie

Dee Loflin, SMT Manager/Writer*

Dexter, Missouri – The First Baptist Church of Dexter is featuring the movie, “The Passion of the Christ” this Friday evening.

“The Passion” as it is referred to often is a 2004 American drama film directed by Mel Gibson and starring Jim Caviezel as Jesus Christ. It depicts the Passion of Jesus largely according to the New Testament Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

The movie covers the final twelve hours of Jesus’ life, beginning with the Agony in the Garden and ending with a brief depiction of his resurrection.

Mel Gibson said of the movie, “This is a movie about love, hope, faith and forgiveness. Jesus died for all mankind, suffered for all of us. It is time to get back to that basic message. The world has gone nuts. We could all use a little more love, faith, hope and forgiveness.”

The movie was filmed in Italy, primarily at Cinecittà Studios in Rome and also in the old city of Matera. It was released on Ash Wednesday in 2004 and was rated R by the Motion Picture Association for “sequences of graphic violence”.

“The Passion of the Christ” won awards such as, Freedom of Expression, Favorite Motion Picture Drama from the People’s Choice Awards, Best Film Production, Best Film Actress, Best Picture and a multitude of genres of accolades. It was also nominated for several Oscars that year including Best Actor, Best Supporting Actor and Best Film.

This is a wonderful, highly emotional movie to watch and everyone should have the opportunity to view this movie.

The movie will begin at 6:30 p.m. on Good Friday, March 29th at the First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall located at 11 W. Castor St. in Dexter.

If you would like more information about the Church or the “Passion of the Christ” movie presentation, call 573-624-7436 or go to their Facebook page and website, www.fbcdexter.org.

Times Not Waiting Tour

Times Not Waiting Tour

*Written by
Dee Loflin, SMT Manager/Writer*

Dexter, Missouri – “Times Not Waiting Tour” is coming to the The Lighthouse Christian Center on Friday, March 22nd. Three amazing bands will be featured at the event, Seventh Time Down, Stellarkart, and Abandon.

The youth ministry, The Called, are teens ages 13 through high school and they meet each Wednesday night for their own worship service tailored to appeal to today's youth. They enjoy socials, outings, camps, and conventions, as well as participating in the outreach ministry. This is an event they are really excited about bringing to the Dexter area.

The Seventh Time Down Band is a Christian rock band releasing their first album, “Alive in You” in September of 2011. They are from Mount Vernon, Kentucky that blends classic rock with their own sound. They pull from the best of timeless bands such as Led Zeppelin, The Who, The Doors and AC/DC and even some Johnny Cash. Who wouldn't like this awesome band!

Stellarkart is a Christian pop punk band from Phoenix, Arizona and have been around since 2005 when they released their first album, “All Gas, No Brake”.

The band Abandon is also a Christian rock band and they are from San Antonio, Texas. Their group's name was inspired by the Bible verse of Joshua 22:3, which reads, “God has directed us not to abandon any brothers”.

Get your tickets early! Cost is only $10 if you pay early, $15 at the door. For more information just call 624-2500. You can also go to www.itickets.com to purchase your tickets. You won't want to miss these amazing performers.

Concert begins at 7:00 p.m. at the Lighthouse Christian Center located at 18555 Lighthouse Dr, Dexter.

The Called has their own Facebook page and you can go to www.lighthouseofdexter.org to learn more about their ministry.
