Dexter, Missouri – The DHS auditorium was rockin’ Monday, May 6th as the annual POP CONCERT was held. “It was incredible,” stated Jamie Sepulvado, Choral Director for Dexter Public Schools.

All four choirs were featured singing songs like, “That’s What Makes You Beautiful” by One Direction, “Blackbird” by Paul McCartney and many other popular songs. It was quite an incredible evening.

The talent involved blew everyone away with acts featuring Logan Quertermous Sarah Richardson, Stephanie Gee, Ashley and Emily Long, Matney Davis, Sam Ward, Jordan Dodson, Noah Kronk, Lauren Thrower, Jon Rodgers, Andrew Moore, Trevor Jines, Zachary Kester, Noah Raines, Brooks Propst, Drew Mason, Kyle Steams, Reale Cook, Shelby Gathings, and Miranda Rogers.

Mrs. Sepulvado also presented awards to the seniors. During the slidshow there was a special performance. Mrs. Sepulvado and Mr. Darren Propst sang together. It was a great night filled with fantastic music.

The audience was awesome and after the seniors received their awards and the last song of the evening was sung, there wasn’t a dry eye in the house by those parents. The last concert for the 2013 seniors and what an extraordinary event it was.

Thank you Mrs. Sepulvado for all that you do and for the entertainment you provide the public each and every year.
