The Path of Destruction

Rescue workers continue to search for survivors from the massive tornado that ripped through parts of Oklahoma killing dozens of people and flattening whatever was in its path, including a hospital and at least two schools.

The storm system behind yesterday's twister continues to threaten a large swath of the United States Tuesday, putting 53 million people at risk of severe weather. Click here to see severe weather alerts in your area.

What can you do to help? How can you prepare your business and your employees for the storms ahead? Agility has compiled the following resources to help you, your employees and your family plan, prepare and recover from the storm.

- Helping Oklahoma – If you're looking for ways to help the residents of Oklahoma ravaged by Monday's tornado, here's a list of several relief organizations are working in the area.
- Tornado Checklist – Download Agility's free Tornado Checklist for tips on how to prepare your business before, during and after a storm.
- Red Cross Tornado App – Get your family and home ready for a tornado with the official Tornado App from the American Red Cross.

Disaster Recovery has become a concern for many business owners. Many local businesses and others have taken the steps to become more involved with their own preparedness by managing their own disaster plan through Agility Recovery.

Agility Recovery has partnered with your local independent agents at County Wide Insurance Agency. In fact, the role that Agility Recovery played in keeping power going for County Wide was instrumental in allowing them to perform their claims duties during the devastating 2009 ice storm.

For more information about the services or to get partnered with the disaster recovery experts at Agility Recovery, contact your County Wide agent, Ed Gargas, Jason Comfort or Alan Hedrick. They will share with you the value of being prepared.
