Jonesboro, Arkansas – According to Gina Bowman, Director of Media Relations at the Arkansas State University, more than 2,100 students have been named to the Chancellor and Deans' lists for the Spring 2013 semester at Arkansas State University, Jonesboro.

Students representing 29 states and 20 countries made the list. Of those students, four former Dexter Senior High School graduates were named.

The Chancellor's List includes students who earned a grade point average of 3.80 – 4.0. Congratulations to Lauren Dudley, Brandon Moore, and Leah Noyes.

The Dean's List includes students who earned a grade point average of 3.6 to 3.79. Congratulations to Timothy Moore.

The Dexter community is extremely proud of all four students who are representing DHS well. You make us PROUD!

Arkansas State University educates leaders, enhances intellectual growth and enriches lives. It was founded in 1909 and has an enrollment of over 14,000 students.
