Dexter, Missouri - Every year schools, libraries and parent/teacher organizations across the country hold Book Fairs to not only raise money, but to offer books to parents, grandparents, teachers, librarians, and of course students. While fundraising is a definite benefit, so is uniting children with literature and bringing the community together to honor that mission.

The Dexter Parents as Teachers Organization (PTO) will be sponsoring a SUMMER READING BOOK FAIR on Wednesday, June 12th in the Southwest Elementary Gym from 10:00 am - 2:00 pm.

Everyone is encouraged to attend. Children do not have to attend summer school to attend this book fair!
