Five area churches are volunteering with Hope International this year in the Bloomfield school district. The First General Baptist Church of Bloomfield is hosting the Back to School Bash on August 8th.

The Back to School Bash is a fair like event for children. They can have fun and leave with everything they need to start the new school year.

“This is the first time we are trying to have three Back to School Bashes, one in Bernie, Dexter, and Bloomfield. Last year we gave out over 400 backpacks filled with supplies,” stated Gale Jordan, Vice-President of Hope International, Bernie, Missouri. “We make each backpack grade specific and all monetary donations received are used to purchase more supplies to complete the school lists for each grade.”

The Bernie Back to School Bash will be held on August 2nd from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m., but you must Register.

The Dexter Back to School Bash will be held on August 6th from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m., but you must Register.

The Bloomfield Back to School Bash will be held on August 8th from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m., but you must Register.

Volunteers from the Assembly of God Church, St. Jo General Baptist Church, Liberty Hill Church, and Trinity Methodist Church are spending their time helping Hope International and the First General Baptist Church to help ease the burden and stress of starting the school. There will be FREE haircuts, FREE dental screenings, FREE vision screenings, FREE HOPE clothing vouchers, and much much, more at the Back to School Bash.
