The Patrons also announced that it would be expanding their children's show offerings with performances in Sikeston and Dexter.

All shows will be performed at the Tinnin Fine Arts Center on the Three Rivers campus in Poplar Bluff. All three children's shows will also have performances at the Sikeston Field House and the Dexter High School Auditorium. "This is an outstanding lineup that will appeal to a wide variety of tastes," said Robert Cook, Director of the Tinnin Fine Arts Center. "We've tried to keep the shows affordable, especially the children's shows, so that we can make it easier for people to try new things and see new shows."

“The Patrons of the Arts is dedicated to bringing quality live performances to Southeast Missouri,” said Mary Libla, chair of the Patrons of the Arts Society, a non-profit organization that raises funds to bring special music, art, drama, dance, literature, lecture and film events to the community through Three Rivers College. “These are the same performers you might see in St. Louis or Memphis or even New York. I encourage everyone who enjoys these shows to help out by joining the Patrons of the Arts, or sponsoring a show. It’s that kind of community support that helps us continue bringing high-class entertainment to Southeast Missouri.”
