Industrial Appreciation Week

SEPTEMBER 09TH 2013 BY DEE LOFLIN

Industrial Appreciation Week

Written by

Dexter, Missouri - Today marks the beginning of Dexter's 29th Annual Industrial Appreciation Week. Mayor Joe Weber signed the proclamation declaring this week Industrial Appreciation Week in Dexter, Missouri.

Present for the signing were members of the Dexter Chamber of Commerce and city officials as well as Chamber President Scott Nelson from First Midwest Bank, Jason Mattison from U.S. Poly, bobby Copeland from Gateway Shoes and Bruce Miller from Specialty Engineering.

There will be a wide range of activities planned this week by the Chamber. On Monday fruit baskets will be given to industry managers, on Tuesday over 4,000 cookies will be delivered to business employees, on Wednesday a four-person golf scramble at Hidden Trails Country Club will be held, on Thursday it's sweet treats for industry employees, on Friday a complimentary breakfast at Pizza Hut beginning at 7:00 a.m. and finally on Saturday the festivities continue with a bowling tournament at Dexter Bowl.

20th Annual Bootheel Walk for MS

SEPTEMBER 06TH 2013 BY DEE LOFLIN

20th Annual Bootheel Walk for MS

Submitted by Jill Temples

Dexter, Missouri- On Saturday, September 28th, the 20th Annual Bootheel Area Walk for MS will take place at the West City Park in Dexter. Registration will start at 4:00 p.m. with the walk will start at 5:00 p.m.

When you participate in the Walk for MS the funds raised will help more than 7,000 people living in our community that have MS. The money being raised will help support life-changing programs for these individuals and will also help with research for the disease. This money also helps research to restore function that has been lost and to end MS all together. The MS walk began in 1988 and has since raised over $10 million to help support people living with MS.

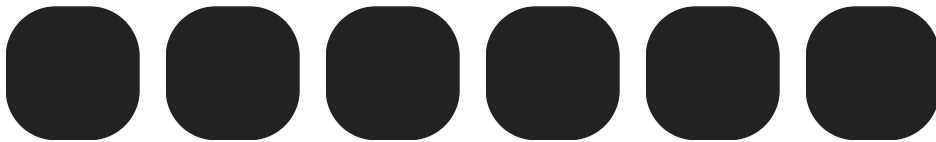

The MS walk will have length routes that are one mile and three miles. If you decide to participate in the walk, you can register as a volunteer, team, or individual. Registration is available online at http://walkmos.nationalmssociety.org/site/TR/Walk/MOSWalkEvents?fr_id=22028& or you can register on the day of the race at 4:00 p.m.

Come out and walk to create a world free of multiple sclerosis!
