Volunteers Honored at Luncheon

*Written by
Dee Loflin, SMT Manager/Editor*

Dexter, Missouri - Central Gardens honored the ladies and men of the First Baptist Church to a luncheon today. These wonderful people give their time and bring flowers from the First Baptist Church every Monday morning for the residents to enjoy.

The flowers are used in the church during their worship service and rather than let them go to waste, this group has dedicated themselves to bring the flowers to brighten the rooms and the faces of the residents at Central Gardens.

"I have been trying to acknowledge all of our volunteers and got to thinking that they have done this for over 10 years! The residents love it." stated Stacy Blocker, Administrator of Central Gardens. "They are a blessing to us and we wanted them to know we are so thankful for them!"
