Dexter, Missouri - There will be an encore performance of the “Walls of Terror”. If you missed Scott and Angie Laden's haunted barn and woods with live actors a couple of weeks ago, then you can still get in on the action on Saturday, November 2nd.

Their farm is located at 9265 County Road 627 in Dexter. Just go down 3 Mile Road to the end and follow the signs. It's open to the public; however a $5.00 fee is being charged to cover expenses and encourage a repeat performance next year.

"We hope this could become an annual event for people around here," state Angie Laden.

It's recommended for ages 10 and up, but anyone can attend.

Freeze Watch For Late Thursday Night

Freeze Watch For Late Thursday Night

Submitted by

Dee Loflin, SMT Manager/Editor

Dexter, Missouri – The National Weather Service in Paducah, Kentucky has issued a FREEZE WATCH from late Thursday night through Friday morning. High pressure will build in with a reinforcing shot of cold Canadian air Thursday night. This will cause temperatures to drop to or below freezing across the entire area. A widespread frost will accompany the freeze if the high builds in strong enough to cause skies to clear and winds to diminish sufficiently.

Thursday night lows are forecast in the upper half of the 20s across the North, especially from the highlands of Southeast Missouri toward the interstate 64 corridor of Southern Illinois.

A FREEZE WATCH means sub-freezing temperatures are possible. These conditions could kill crops and other sensitive vegetation.
