DHS Seniors Honored at Friday Night Football

*Written by
Dee Loflin SMT Manager/Writer*

Dexter, Missouri - It's tradition at Dexter Senior High School to honor fall sports, football cheer and marching band students at the last home game of the year.

Twenty nine students along with their parents were presented during pre-game and the ShowMe Times was there to capture the moment.

This week the ShowMe Times will post articles on each student along with their parent(s). Check with us daily to see who is featured! Also we will post a photo album of the students and their parents on our Facebook page.

The Dexter community is extremely proud of each student and their accomplishments over the years. We look forward to their future endeavors, accomplishments and we will be there for graduation as well! Congratulations SENIORS!! Go Bearcats!!
