Essex, Missouri - In honor of Halloween and Red Ribbon Week, the students at Richland were able to wear the Halloween costumes to school today. There were ghouls, goblins, and even a police officer, so the hallways were busy, busy, busy like always.

While some prepared a little early for Trick or Treating, others prepared for the junior high basketball game tonight by wearing their Rebel gear to school. The Jr. High Rebels will be facing the Bell City Cubs in their own gym tonight at 6pm.

With Halloween costumes and Rebel gear galore, the students at Richland enjoyed celebrating their early dismissal day and the end to Disability Awareness month by watching a movie in the gym. The students have made each day this week memorable with their creative dress up ideas and are excited for their final day of Red Ribbon Week tomorrow: Mismatch Day.

Essex, Missouri - Yesterday, the Rebels celebrated their third day of their annual Red Ribbon Week again as they continue to learn about harmful drugs and why it's so important to stay drug free. Their third dress up day was Camouflage Day! The elementary showed off their camouflage while some of the high schoolers showed off their hunting gear.

Tomorrow will be Mismatch Day and it will also be the final dress up day for Red Ribbon Week this year. Tomorrow will include the final prize drawings as well, so be sure to bring your ribbons!
