Middle School Students Inducted into Beta Club

*Written by

Dexter, Missouri - "Let Us Lead by Serving Others" - T.S. Hill Middle School held their annual induction of new students into the National Junior Beta Club. This is the second year for the prestigious club which honors academics.

Angie Duncan welcomed the students. Jake Rice performed the Pledge of Allegiance. Rhylan Hillis, Addison Kruse, Megan Simmons, Shelby Smith, and Bailee Williams performed the National Anthem.

The lighting of the candles is a Beta Club tradition and each candle that is lit represents something that the Beta Club strives for. Mindy Thurmon was given the opportunity of lighting the white candle that symbolizes light, purity and faith. Belinda Delay lit the red candle, symbolizing pure love and wisdom. Jeannie Cato lit the blue candle which symbolizes truth, constancy, and fidelity. Kristi Boles lit the black candle which signifies dignity, restraint, and seriousness and a Beta's thirst for knowledge and truth. Mindy Thurlkill lit the gold (or yellow) candle which signifies warmth, faithfulness, and friendship.

The Ceremony ended after each student was inducted into the club but this is just the beginning for the new Beta members. For many Betas this is a memorable and exciting event where your family members and friends get to join you as you take a step toward your future goal.

Beta Club doesn't only help keep kids on track to success, but they also help you realize the things that you want to be successful in. Beta opens doors for many opportunities in several different areas such as academics, fine arts, public speaking, musical performances, Quiz Bowl competitions, and many more. Aside from different competitions, the club also builds character and gives each member a sense of responsibility and honor that they will carry with them the rest of their Beta career.
