Mosby who tallied a game high of 13 points. 11 of those points in the first half. She's definitely one to watch.

Natalie Sitze added 9 more along with Rylee Allen who sunk for six points. The Bearcats led at the half 23 - 4.

Marquesha Mister is the one to watch for the Kennett Lady Indians. She played extremely well and tallied all of the Lady Indian's points in the first half. She also scored 15 more points in the second half to lead Kennett's team with 19 total points. Only two other teammates scored for the Indians.

There is one more opportunity to see these awesome Bearcats on Thursday, November 14th. They will be on the court against the Sikeston Bulldogs at home. Game time is 6:00 p.m. Way to go 7th grade Lady Bearcats!
