Bloomfield, Missouri – The #14 seed Puxico is making its way through the ranks with a win over the East Prairie Eagles. The Indians looked good on the court and were able to capitalize on many of their possessions.

Puxico's Zach Tucker had a game-high 23 points hitting five of his six attempts at the charity strips. Four other Indians were in double digits. Garrett Payne hit for 13 including 3 treys. Corey Pratt hit 2 baskets for 2, 2 treys and was 2 for 2 in free throws. Austin Tiechman tallied 16 points and Tim Hancock contributed 12 more.

The East Prairie Eagles have not faired so well in the Bloomfield Tournaments over the years and this year was no exception. However they had five of their players scoring in double digits. Damion Tipler tallied a game-high
