Bloomfield, Missouri – It looked like a different team out there on the court when the Dexter Bearcats went up against the Hayti Indians. Hayti seeded #2 in the 57th Annual Bloomfield Christmas Tournament had already defeated Van Buren easily, but they had met their match when the Bearcats hit the floor!

It was a close game in the first quarter with the Bearcats leading 20 – 15. There was exciting in the bleachers and many Bearcat fans on their feet cheering. At half Dexter was still leading the game, but by only a point, 31 – 31. They needed to rally in the 3rd quarter to continue their chance to win this game.

Unfortunately for Dexter, Hayti dug their heels in and scored several unanswered points in the third quarter to overpower the Bearcats and lead by six going into the 4th quarter. Final Score Dexter 57 Hayti 69

The Bearcats played with heart and determination and looked fantastic out on the floor. Win or lose this was the best performance of the year by the boys basketball team. Way to go Bearcats!

Cole Renken ##33 finished with a game-high 19 points for Dexter. D.J. Dowdy #11 and Ethan Flowers #24 each contributed 13 points with Flowers hitting three treys for the Bearcats. Dowdy and Peyton Pollock #12 each had a trey.

Demetrius Luster led the Indians' with a team-high 18 points including a trey. Frankie Burden, Jr. recorded 17 points and Brandon Burden added 12 more.

Final Score #2 Hayti 69 #7 Dexter 57
