The Battle for Braggin' Rights Game Postponed

Submitted by Dee Loflin, SMT Manager/Editor

Cape Girardeau, Missouri - Due to the inclement weather that we have received in Southeast Missouri, the schools have elected to postpone "The Battle for Braggin' Rights" games. The games will now be played on Wednesday, January 15th instead of Tuesday January 7th.

The games will start at the same time as originally scheduled with Oran and Bernie tipping off at 6:00 p.m. followed by Charleston and Sikeston at 7:30 p.m.

- •€€€€ All tickets that have been purchased for the Charleston vs. Sikeston game on January 7th will be honored at the rescheduled event on January 15th
 - o No action is required if you plan to attend the event.
- •€€€€€ Refunds are available for those who have purchased tickets previously and cannot make it due to the event being rescheduled.
 - o All requests for refunds must be made at the box office or by calling (573) 651-5000. Requests for refunds must be made by Friday, January 10th at 5:00 p.m.

| Tickets are on sale now. You can purchase tickets in advance online at |
|---|
| www.ShowMeCenter.biz, by phone at (573) 651-5000, or in person at the Show Me |
| Center Box office. |
