Dexter, Missouri - Students returning to classes at Three Rivers College have been granted an extension to the registration deadline, according to college officials. Students who have previously completed the admissions process at Three Rivers may now continue to register for Spring semester classes through Friday, January 17.

The college's campus and full service centers will be open from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. on the additional days. Those wishing to register at the Sikeston Center must call 573-472-5223 for an appointment. Students must have fully completed the admissions process in the past, including taking an ACT or Compass placement test, to be eligible for the extension.

"We want to give students who have taken classes with us an extra chance to come back and register for a new semester," said Dr. Wesley Payne, Vice President for Learning at Three Rivers. "Whether they took classes in last fall's semester, or were Three Rivers students five years ago, those students deserve to be able to continue their education."

Those interested in enrolling can browse available courses by clicking "Search for Classes" at trcc.edu. Current students can register online through the myTRCC system. Spring classes are already in session, so returning students are urged to act quickly.

For more information, visit or call the Three Rivers Poplar Bluff Campus, 2080 Three Rivers Blvd., 877-879-8722; the Center at Dexter, 515A West Market, 573-614-1081; the Center at Kennett, 1000 Great West Drive, 573-888-6381; the Center at Malden, 2203 Narvel Felts Blvd., 573-276-3529; the Center at Sikeston, 103 E. Kathleen, 573-472-5223; or the South Central Education Consortium in Willow Springs, 908 Springfield, 417-469-3000.

Three Rivers College is committed to contributing to the quality of life in Southeast Missouri with quality, affordable higher education opportunities and community services that support and encourage the economic, civic, and cultural vitality of the region. Winter Homecoming Spirit Week at DHS

Winter Homecoming Spirit Week at DHS

Written by

Erin Lauters, SMT Writer

Dexter, Missouri - Dexter Senior High School Students sure have school spirit. The Dexter Senior High School Student body will be participating all week long in Winter Homecoming Spirit Week by dressing up in all sorts of ways.

Monday is "School is Out Because of Snow" not really, but students will be allowed to stay in their pajamas all day.

Tuesday is dress warm day. Wear your favorite coat, scarf, and mittens.

Wednesday is camo/plaid and wear hunting orange day. Wear your hunting gear.

Thursday is book character day. Dress up like your favorite character. Perhaps you are a Dr. Zeus fan or maybe Harry Potter. Can't wait to see who shows up at DHS.

Friday is white out the Mules. Wear white shirts, white pants, white shoes and get into the Bearcat spirit! Let's kick those Mules back to their barn!

Friday evening the Dexter Bearcats will take the court and compete against the Bernie Mules at the Bearcat Event Center. It's Winter Homecoming so everyone is encouraged to attend and support your Bearcats. Game time is 6:00 p.m.

Go Bearcats!

Dexter, Missouri - C.S. Lewis' enchanted world of Narnia will come to life in Sikeston, Dexter, and Poplar Bluff when the Imaginary Theatre Company performs "The Lion, The Witch, and the Wardrobe" as part of the 2013-2014 Patrons of the Arts season. The show will be performed at the Sikeston Field House on Saturday, January 18 at 2 p.m., the Dexter High School Auditorium on Jan. 18 at 7 p.m., and the Tinnin Fine Arts Center in Poplar Bluff on Sunday, Jan. 19 at 2 p.m. Admission is $5 per person.

"The Imaginary Theatre Company does an amazing job with the children's shows they present," said Bob Cook, Director of the Tinnin Fine Arts Center. "Their adaptations take beloved books and stories and make them come to life right there on the stage."

It is the first season that Three Rivers and the Patrons of the Arts have expanded performances beyond the Tinnin Center. The Patrons group is partnering with the Dexter Chamber of Commerce and the Sikeston Public School Foundation to bring performances to those cities. In addition to "The Lion, The Witch, and the Wardrobe,” the company will present “The Tortoise and the Hare” in all three cities in February.

Through the use of literature, folk tales, fairy tales, and new adaptations of classic works, the Imaginary Theatre Company provides the finest in theater for young theater-goers. The Company is part of the Repertory Theatre Company of St. Louis, and has previously performed children’s shows in the 2012-2013 Patrons season.

“The audience response is always wonderful. Children and their parents truly enjoy these whimsical performances,” said Cook.

Based off the first book in the classic “Chronicles of Narnia” series, the play follows Lucy into the darkness of an old wardrobe, as she steps into a secret world full of mystical creatures and an evil witch bent on ruling all. If she is ever to get back home, Lucy must band together with her siblings and their newfound friends to bring peace back to the enchanted world of Narnia.

Tickets can be purchased online at trcc.edu/tinnin. Tickets are also available at the the Dexter Chamber of Commerce and the Center at Dexter; the Sikeston Public School Foundation offices and the Center at Sikeston; and the Poplar Bluff Chamber of Commerce and the Three Rivers College Business Office.

3Rivers Extends Spring Registration Deadline

Submitted by Dee Loflin SMT Manager/Writer

Dexter, Missouri - Three Rivers College has added two days to its registration deadline, allowing new and current students to continue registering for classes through Tuesday, January 14 at its locations in Poplar Bluff, Sikeston, Dexter, Kennett, and Malden.

The college's campus and full service centers will be open from 8 a.m. until 6:30 p.m. on both additional days. In addition, a special registration session will be held in Poplar Bluff, Sikeston, Dexter, Kennett, and Malden on Saturday, January 11 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. During the special session, prospective students will be able to finish the registration process, as well as apply for financial aid. Those wishing to register at the Sikeston Center must call 573-472-5223 for an appointment.

"We're still in the process of making up registration days that were lost to the snowstorm in early December," said Dr. Angela Totty, Vice President for Student Success at Three Rivers. "We want to give prospective students every opportunity to start building their future despite the weather delays."

Prospective students must have their high school transcripts, and an ACT or Compass placement test score no more than two years old. The Compass test, which helps determine appropriate class placement in English, reading, and math, can be taken on the Poplar Bluff Campus without a reservation during the January 11 special registration session at 9 a.m. and 10 a.m. To reserve a seat for a Compass test session Jan. 7-10, students should visit trcc.edu/testing.

Those interested in enrolling can browse available courses by clicking "Search for Classes" at trcc.edu. Current students can register online through the myTRCC system. Prospective students must fill out a free application online at trcc.edu/admissions.

For more information, visit or call the Three Rivers Poplar Bluff Campus, 2080 Three Rivers Blvd., 877-879-8722; the Center at Dexter, 515A West Market, 573-614-1081; the Center at Kennett, 1000 Great West Drive, 573-888-6381; the Center at Malden, 2203 Narvel Felts Blvd., 573-276-3529; the Center at Sikeston, 103 E. Kathleen, 573-472-5223; or the South Central Education Consortium in Willow Springs, 908 Springfield, 417-469-3000.
