Bootheel Bobwhites to Host Annual Quail Forever Banquet

Written by Jessica Danielle, SMT Writer

Dexter, Missouri – It's that time again for the 2nd Annual Quail Forever Banquet hosted by the Bootheel Bobwhites Missouri Chapter #3148.

This is relatively a new chapter starting last year and serving the Scott and Stoddard County areas. It was created due to the growing interest in quail conservation and hunting. The Bootheel Bobwhites are dedicated to the conservation and preservation of quail, pheasants, and other wildlife through habitat improvements, public awareness, education, and land management policies and programs.

Pheasants Forever launched Quail Forever in August of 2005 to address the continuing loss of habitat suitable for quail in the United States.

The Bootheel Bobwhites are a grass roots organization with a diversified group of hunters, non-hunters, farmers, landowners, conservation enthusiasts and wildlife officials. If you want to make a difference for wildlife by creating a habitat, restoring a wetland area and protecting our prairies you should get involved in this worthwhile adventure.

The proceeds from this event will go towards local projects to enhance quail habitats and promote youth education by having a Shooting Day. This will teach young students the value of quail habitats, their preservation, gun safety and the heritage of quail hunting in Southeast Missouri.

Membership benefits include a Quail Forever Journal of Upland Conservation which is published four times a year and features stories on upland bird hunting, guns, sporting dogs, habitat improvement projects, environmental issues, legislative action and other outdoor interests. Window decal featuring Quail Forever logo, a membership card for easy identification, and local chapter access to attend banquets, meetings, participate in fundraising activities and the greatest benefit is that you can make a difference in your area along with other outdoor enthusiasts.

Everyone is invited to attend whether you hunt or just enjoy the outdoors. It's a great way to support the quail habitat in your neck of the woods.

The Quail Forever Banquet will be held on Saturday, February 8th beginning at 5:30 p.m. at the Elks Lodge in Dexter, Missouri.

To purchase tickets contact Tim Kavan at tkavan_76@hotmail.com or 573-823-6366. You may also purchase tickets at the door.

Please join them for an exciting night of food, fun, and festivities! There will be a live auction and plenty of items to bid on in the silent auction. Please support Quail Forever! Your continued conservation efforts ensures the success of Quail Forever.
