Dexter, Missouri - The JV Cardinals came to win! At the end of the first quarter they were leading 18 - 1. By half-time it was a 17 point lead for the Cards.

Caleb Pulley hit a game-high 15 points and 3 treys, however it was not enough to overtake the power of the JV Cardinals. Jacob Hector was also in double figures as he tallied 12 points for the Wildcats including a 3-pointer. Tim Hector added a trey as well.

Woodland's Bruester Young was the only Cardinal in double figures tallying 11 with 3 treys of his own.

The JV Cardinals only have three wins this season so this was a great win for them against Bloomfield.

The Woodland JV Cardinals will be back in action at the SCAA Tournament on Thursday, January 30th at 4:00 p.m. They will either play #2 Bell City JV or #7 Bernie JV. Woodland JV is seeded #6
