The Rippers started the tournament with a record of 3-0 during pool play. They faced the Naturals and Stealth Baseball, winning both games 5-4.

The last team they faced during pool play was Paducah Storm, who they defeated 7-3.

During Sunday's championship round of the tournament, the Rippers were first reunited with The Naturals, who they defeated in a come-from-behind victory 9-8.

In semi-final action, the Rippers defeated Paducah Storm, once again, with a score of 16 - 6. Lastly, the Rippers faced off with Collierville Dragons (10-0) to come away with the championship victory.

The Rippers advance to 19-4 for the season.

The Southeast Rippers team is based out of the Benton area, and is coached by Darrell Dannenmueller and Danny Dumey.
