2014 Dove and Teal Season Set

Missouri - Hunters of early-migrating gamebirds can mark their calendars now. The Missouri Conservation Commission has approved the following early migratory bird hunting seasons and limits:

Mourning doves, Eurasian collared doves, and white-winged doves: Sept. 1 through Nov. 9 (70 days), with limits of 15 daily and 45 in possession (combined total for all three species).

Blue-winged teal, green-winged teal, and cinnamon teal: The blue-winged teal (BWT) is the primary species harvested during this early hunting season. For this reason, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service bases teal hunting regulations on an annual survey of BWT numbers on the birds' nesting grounds. Survey data are not available until mid-summer, so each year the Conservation Commission approves season dates contingent on survey results. If the BWT breeding population index is below 3.3 million, the season is closed. If the BWT breeding population index is at least 3.3 million but fewer than 4.7 million, this year's season will be Sept. 6 through 14 (nine days). If the BWT breeding population index is 4.7 million or greater, the season will be Sept. 6 through 21 (16 days). If there is an early teal season, the limits will be six daily and 18 in possession.

Sora and Virginia rails: Sept. 1 through Nov. 9 (70 days), with a daily limit of 25 and a possession limit of 75 (combined total for both species).

Wilson's (common) snipe: Sept. 1 through Dec. 16 (107 days), with a daily limit of eight and a possession limit of 24.

American woodcock: Oct. 15 through Nov. 28 (45 days), with a daily limit of three and a possession limit of nine.

Additional details about early migratory bird hunting regulations will be published in the 2014 Migratory Bird Hunting Digest. The publication will be available from hunting permit vendors later this summer and online at mdc.mo.gov.

Boonville Defeats Charleston - Play Again Tonight

JULY 16TH 2014 BY DEE LOFLIN

Boonville Defeats Charleston - Play Again Tonight

*Written by
Dee Loflin, SMT Manager/Editor*

Charleston, Missouri – Tonight at 5:30 p.m. it's winner take all in the Missouri Senior Babe Ruth State Tournament. The Charleston Fighting Squirrels will take on Boonville at Hillhouse Park in Charleston. For the Squirrels they do not want to see a repeat performance of Tuesday nights game.

Boonville jumped out in front with a 4 – 0 lead over the Squirrels. They suffered a loss to Charleston in game #18 and have come back strong winning their last four games.

Charleston seemed plagued with errors early on defensively, but managed to earn two runs in 4th cutting Boonville's lead in half. The Squirrels just couldn't catch a break at the plate and Boonville was just too much owning the 6th inning with 4 more runs.

Jason Mattison started as pitcher for Charleston allowing only three hits in five plus innings before being relieved. Charleston changed pitchers two more times and finished the game with Chance Maness on the mound.

“We just didn't play well,” stated Mike Minner, head coach for Charleston.

Boonville and Charleston will be back in action at 5:30 p.m. tonight. It's the last game of the season for one team; the other will advance to the Regionals in North Dakota. Boonville is 23-4 on the season and Charleston is 34-16.

Final Score: Boonville 9 Charleston 3

Charleston 0 0 0 2 0 0 1 - 3 5 6

Boonville 1 2 1 1 0 4 x - 9 6 2

WP - Josh Judd. LP - Jason Mattison. 2B - Colton Hampton (C), Dalton Bealmer (B). Multiple hits - Charleston: Luke Haines 2-3; Boonville: Jalen Poindexter 2-4, Zach Nixon 2-3.
