2014 SCAA All-State Volleyball Players

DECEMBER 17TH 2014 BY DEE LOFLIN

2014 SCAA All-State Volleyball Players

Jackson, Missouri – Players from around the state met at Jackson High School on Saturday, December 13, 2014 for the Missouri High School Volleyball Coaches Association 2014 All-State matches.

Shown in the photo are SCAA players who competed at the event. From left to right are: Chelsea Delay (Bloomfield – Class 2 second-team), Lindsey Young (Bloomfield – Class 2 first-team), Jessica Lindsey (Dexter – Class 3 second-team), Shyann Jines (Dexter – Class 3 Honorable Mention), Morgan Baker (Bernie – Class 1 first-team), Kayli Tanner (Bernie – Class 1 Honorable Mention), and Krista Rhodes (Woodland – Class 2 Honorable Mention).

"All-state teams are determined by a committee that meets on Saturday afternoon of the state tournament. Any all-region player is eligible for all-state because (depending on regional strength), a second team player from one part of the state may be better than a first team player from another part of the state. Coaches of all-region players send in a profile that lists season stats, honors and other information to assist the committee. For a player to be honored, their coach must be a member of MHSVCA. The committee then selects between 8-12 players to be on each class's first team, second team and honorable mention teams."
