Tila Hubrecht Capitol Report

Jefferson City, Missouri - This past week was another busy week in Jefferson City. It had a bumpy beginning due to the weather. The usual session on Monday was only a "technical" session with actual floor and committee work beginning on Tuesday.

Monday was not wasted though, I had arrived Sunday evening before the weather hit and was able to accomplish quite a lot! We were able to debate and pass legislation related to Voter ID and a resolution to challenge the constitutionality of the President's Executive Amnesty.

During committee hearings this week, several bills were heard, one was concerning sex trafficking. I was shocked to learn that St. Louis is #20 in the list for this abdominal crime. I am still trying to meet individually with each of the representatives to establish a good working relationship.

I find it is very helpful to know everyone on an individual basis, not in the light of party affiliation, also having a common ground that we can work from is beneficial to everyone. This week we were visited by Senator Blunt, Congressman Smith and Congresswoman Wagner.

I found it very informative to learn what issues were currently being debated in Washington DC and most importantly how the issues being debated at the state level was impacting Washington DC. I have included pictures from this week at the end of this report.

Thank you for the privilege to serve you in Jefferson City! Please do not hesitate to call if an issue arises that I can be of assistance.

Until next week,
Tila Hubrecht
151st State Representative
