"Poplar Bluff has a lot of talent and it took a total team effort to get their championship victory," continued Hahn. "The first place game went three sets and was very exciting from start to finish. The Lady 'Cats won the first set 25-20 to Poplar Bluff and then lost the second set 22-25, but they prevailed winning the third set 25-14!

"Last year during the tournament we also went three sets with Poplar Bluff in the finals, so the 8th grade game will also be one to watch! They are coached by Amanda Lance. She happens to be my niece so it makes for a fun and spirited rivalry!"
