DHS Faculty Awards Presented at Bearcat Event Center

Dexter, Missouri - Each year the faculty choose students with who have achieved greatness in the classroom. Students are then presented awards at the Annual Awards Assembly in the Bearcat Event Center.

Scholarships were also announced for the Class of 2015 and will be listed in another article after Graduation on Friday evening. More scholarships are expected to be announced.

Mr. Dan Pollock, principal, recognized each student had earned a place in the Dexter Honor Society. He also named all those who made Top Ten Percent at Dexter High School.

Many teachers wrote notes about the students they chose to receive the faculty awards.

Mr. Derek Urhahn presented each student their award and read the letter from the teacher.
