Largest Rib City Shootout Ends with Charleston, Scott Co. Central, and Calvert City Top Winner

Dexter, Missouri – The boys of winter took time out of their summer schedule to participate in the 80+ team Rib City Boys' Basketball Shootout in Dexter this past week.

Athletes from Arkansas, Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois, and Missouri descended upon Dexter, Bernie, Essex, and Bloomfield gyms to battle against the best of the best.

The Charleston Bluejays defeated Ridgeway, Tennessee 43-40 in their semifinal and West Plains, Missouri 50-45 in the Championship of the 7-team bracket played on Court #2 of the Bearcat Event Center in Dexter.

Scott County Central Braves beat Mexico, Missouri in their quarterfinal, then defeated Dyer County, Tennessee in their semifinal before winning their Championship game against Herrin, Illinois 58-42 in their 8-team bracket on Court #1 of the Bearcat Event Center.

Calvert City, Kentucky beat Greene County Tech of Paragould, Arkansas 58-32 in the semifinal and Trigg County, Kentucky in the Championship game 44-32 in their 8-team bracket played on Court #3 of the Bearcat Event Center.

The last boys basketball Rib City Shootout of the summer will take place on July 10th and 11th.

There is also a girls basketball Rib City Shootout slated for July 17th and 18th.
