Huffman Transfers to Senior VP at Midwest Bancorporation

Dexter, Missouri - Jack Huffman, EVP and Community President of First Midwest Bank of Dexter, an independently owned and operated community bank established in 1964, has announced that he will transfer from the bank to Senior Vice President of Midwest Bancorporation, Inc., an affiliate of the bank.

Midwest Bancorporation, Inc. provides bank consulting services to its affiliated banks throughout Southeast Missouri including First Midwest Bank of Dexter. Jack will be working with Joseph T. McLane, President of the holding company, in various capacities including special projects, asset liability management, and loan review.

“The bank has grown dramatically under Jack’s leadership since February 2002, including the addition of new branches in Jackson and Cape Girardeau,” said Joseph T. McLane. “Jack’s invaluable banking experience will be an asset to the holding company,” McLane continued.

Jack and his wife Betty will continue to live in Dexter. They have both been active in various church, civic and community organizations including the First Baptist Church of Dexter, and the Regional Healthcare Foundation. Betty is a retired school teacher with the Dexter School System.
