K9 Biz Raises Money for Dexter Animal Shelter

Dexter, Missouri - K9 Biz raised $237.41 for the Dexter Animal Shelter on Saturday, December 12th with their Pets with Santa Photos.

Furbabies and their Moms and Dads came in to meet Santa and ask for special treats this holiday season. K9 Biz also had homemade dog biscuits in the shape of snowflakes, stockings, dog bones and more. They even had a special doggy cake just for four-legged friends to eat.

K9 Biz specializes Basic Obedience courses and other types of dog training as well. They have a plush assortment of dog toys, treats, collars, clothing, leashes and more!

Self Serve Dog Baths now available! Introductory special through the end of December: Small dogs $8; Large dogs $12! Price includes: Shampoo, Towels and Dryer.

Their motto is “Training is fun for you and your furry friend!”

Officer Ross Culbertson was on hand to receive the money for the Dexter Human Society from co-owner Clair Stadt and Bouncer.
