Fourth Grade Classroom Earns Top Honors in Coat Drive

Dexter, Missouri - Students collected nearly 200 coats from their annual holiday Coat Drive at Central Elementary School.

The coats were donated to the Stoddard County Gospel Mission.

Top classrooms who collected the most coats in each grade were rewarded with a pizza party. The annual coat drive has been project at Central Elementary School for many years. The coats are distributed to children and adults in need throughout Stoddard County.

The classroom of Casey Williams collected the most coats for fourth grade. She is pictured with Kim Slavings, Gospel Mission Director and her students who worked so hard to bring in coats.

Ms. Williams' students are Connor Bias, Tyson Carmode, Dustin Carter, Aurelia Colbert, Holden Duer, Marie Fees, Kaleb Freeman, Matthew Gardner, Nathan Harris, Alexander Henderson, Dalton Noble, Jagaer Pixley, Kelbey Rodgers, Larissa Stanley, Sophia Stevens, Le Roy Watson, Carson Williams, Bree Winchester, Troy Wiseman, Emma Kate Worley, and Ethan Zabelin.
