

TOP

Hubbards Jewelry Continues Tradition

SEPTEMBER 29TH 2016 BY DEE LOFLIN

Hubbards Jewelry Continues Tradition - Jamie Cook, co-owner of Hubbard's Jewelry in downtown Dexter continues the tradition of her late mother, Marie Hubbard, by donating a ring to raffle for the Stoddard County Nutrition Center.

Proceeds from the raffle will go to Meals on Wheels.

The ring, a half caret and damond and ruby dinner ring will be raffled off on the night of Moonlight Madness on November 11, 2016.

Tickets are available at Hubbard's Jewelry and the Nutrition Center.

Waynetta Rodgers, Director of the Stoddard County Nutrition Center, said, "We have a unique raffle this year. We are selling tickets at $1.00 each or 10 tickets for $5.00. That's right not the typical 6 for $5.00, but a bonus of 4 extra tickets."

Please help carry on the tradition and support the Meals on Wheels program.

Shown in the photo is Waynetta Rodgers and Jamie Cook.

LAST UPDATED ON SEPTEMBER 29TH 2016 BY DEE LOFLIN

<https://showmetimes.com/Blogpost/v5kc/Hubbards-Jewelry-Continues-Tradition>

Go to post

More from ShowMe Times: