Closing for a Cause Mission

OCTOBER 06TH 2016 BY DEE LOFLIN

Closing for a Cause Mission

Dexter, Missouri - National title & Escrow employees recently painted the Raney House on Walnut Street to kick-off their Closing for a Cause campaign.

"As a local business, we understand the importance of support and community involvement," commented Jake Nesselrodt, National title's Manager. "That is why each and every month we will be giving back to our community by assisting a local non-profit organization with their cause!"

The house was donated for use for the Mother-to-Mother Program through the First Christian Church of Dexter. it provides as a residence for a designated period of time to a working, single mother.

Nesselrodt suggests that any non-profit organization within the local community in need of assistance to contact him at (573) 624-9990.

Hubbards Jewelry Continues Tradition

SEPTEMBER 29TH 2016 BY DEE LOFLIN

Hubbards Jewelry Continues Tradition

Dexter, Missouri - Jamie Cook, co-owner of Hubbard's Jewelry in downtown Dexter continues the tradition of her late mother, Marie Hubbard, by donating a ring to raffle for the Stoddard County Nutrition Center.

Proceeds from the raffle will go to Meals on Wheels.

The ring, a half caret and damond and ruby dinner ring will be raffled off on the night of Moonlight Madness on November 11, 2016.

Tickets are available at Hubbard's Jewelry and the Nutrition Center.

Waynetta Rodgers, Director of the Stoddard County Nutrition Center, said, "We have a unique raffle this year. We are selling tickets at $1.00 each or 10 tickets for $5.00. That's right not the typical 6 for $5.00, but a bonus of 4 extra tickets."

Please help carry on the tradition and support the Meals on Wheels program.
